2012 DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI SELECTED

Michael Charzuk (Class of 1981) Mike Charzuk is an award winning producer, audio engineer and musician, having more than 25 years of experience in audio production as a recording musician and audio book producer. Mike is the Executive Producer for Audible.com and has produced hundreds of audio books, dozens of which have been nominated for Audie Awards, Earphones Awards, and a Grammy nomination for Best Spoken Word project in 2010. He has produced hundreds of promo spots for Viacom, Nickelodeon, Nick Jr., and TV land. Mike headed the production team that rebranded TNN into Spike TV.

John Dolezal (Class of 1962) John Dolezal has been in public service his entire life. He served in the United States Marines and was a Suffolk County Police Officer for 24 years. John has 50 years experience as a firefighter and has lifetime membership in the Mastic Fire Department and the Mastic Ambulance Company. John is a charter member of Save the Forge River, Inc.; dedicated to healing and environmentally restoring the livelihood of the Forge River. He is currently serving as their treasurer.

Hiroshi Kimura (Class of 1985) Dr. Hiroshi Kimura is a dentist specializing in periodontics and dental implants. He is owner of Periodontics and Dental Implants of New York. In addition to his private practice, Hiroshi is Clinical Assistant Professor of the Columbia University School of Dentistry. He is an international lecturer on dental implants and periodontics. Hiroshi holds numerous certifications and memberships in professional dental associations.

Vincent Nasta (Class of 1979) Vincent Nasta was an outstanding and popular art teacher at Riverhead High School for 17 years. Vincent was a commercial artist and a published book illustrator over a 25 year freelance career. He was a general aviation pilot, air show pilot and certified flight instructor. After his untimely death in 2008, The Vincent Nasta Foundation was established in his memory, providing scholarships for deserving graduates.

Karen Poidomani (Class of 1981) Karen Poidomani has been a business teacher for the past 26 years at William Floyd High School. During her career, Karen has been honored as: Suffolk County Business Teacher of the Year, New York State Business Teacher of the Year, News 12 Educator of the Month and the SCOPE Teacher Service Award recipient. Under her leadership as chairperson, the Business Education Department has won the Region 1 New York State Business Department of the Year Award three times, most recently in 2010. She was a recipient of the William Floyd Alumni Association's Outstanding Educators Award in 2010.

The reception will be held on Thursday, April 26th at Rock Hill Golf & Country Club in Manorville at 5:00PM and tickets are available for $55. Checks should be made payable to William Floyd Alumni Association and sent to Linda Moeller in district office. Please call 874-1201 or email lmoeller@wfsd.k12.ny.us if you have additional questions. Congratulations to this year's class of honorees and we hope to see you at the awards reception on William Floyd Distinguished Alumni Day, April 26th!
